

THE TIGER

1962

RUSH CITY

MINNESOTA

FOREWORD

AN OPEN LETTER TO THE STUDENTS OF RCHS--

You are about to begin the 1962 TIGER. Now, as in years to come, it will bring back many fond memories. May it always serve as an incentive to do your best and may the things you have learned at RCHS help you achieve your highest goals. Remember, "The reward of a thing well done is to have done it."

Each effort you put into a project should be your very best. Not only does RCHS need to be worthy of you; YOU need to be worthy of RCHS.

We have put much effort forth to make this yearbook one you will enjoy now and for many years to come. Our work was not for ourselves, but for you, the student.

This yearbook would not have been possible without the help of each staff member and our adviser, Mr. Schafer. A real "thank you" to each of you.

We are proud of RCHS and its students. We hope each class and each class member will find success.

May God bless each of you.

Lu Ann & Marcia

FACULTY

We are grateful to the administrators of our school: Mr. F. R. Welna, Elementary Principal; Mr. J. R. Simcox, Superintendent; Mr. C. E. Jacobson, High School Principal, for the effort they put forth to insure the proper organization and operation of the Rush City Schools.

DEDICATION

As the Class of 1962 started its high school career in seventh grade, Mr. Petersen was one of its English instructors. Since that time, six years ago, he has helped the members of the class in many ways.

Many of Mr. Petersen's Spanish students will remember his Spanish tests long after the Spanish phrases are forgotten.

All of Mr. Petersen's band members will remember the struggle to get to first hour band rehearsals on time. Also, the pride on the director's face after a fine performance will be remembered most of all.

As the Senior Class Advisor, Mr. Petersen has helped the Class of '62 make many sound decisions.

We sincerely thank Mr. Petersen for the true spirit he has for RCHS and for the help he has given us, both in groups and in personal contact.

To you, MR. ROBERT PETERSEN, we proudly dedicate the 1962 TIGER.

FUTURE HOMEMAKERS OF AMERICA

The Future Homemakers of America organization is one of the largest in the school. This year we increased our membership to more than 75. The high point in the year for the whole chapter was on October 14 when we were host to the District VII convention. At left is a picture of District VII vice-president on her "big day." Through the help of our adviser, Mrs. Norton, and the honest effort of each chapter member this year has been one of our best.

FUTURE FARMERS OF AMERICA

The Future Farmers of America organization is one of the busiest in RCHS. The group is under the leadership of President Mike Behrendt, Vice President George Peterson, Secretary Dave Danson, Treasurer Howard Spinler, Reporter Don Moulton, and Sentinel Dave Lofgren. The adviser of the group is Mr. Hasslen. This year judging teams competed on the district level on Crops, Farm Mechanics, Dairy, Horticulture, Wild Life, Poultry, Metas, Soils, and Tim Halpin entered the Public Speaking contest. In October five RCHS FFA boys attended the National FFA Convention in Kansas City.

The RCHS FFA is proud to be the present holders of the Dahlberg Award, an award given to the most outstanding chapter in District VIII, based on points gained in judging and in leadership.

PLAYS

On November 17, 1961, the Junior Class presented a delightful comedy, "The Cannibal Queen." Those who attended thoroughly enjoyed the hilarious antics of Ju-Ju, the cannibal queen.

"Curtain Call"

"Send us rain!"

"Me find um big man."

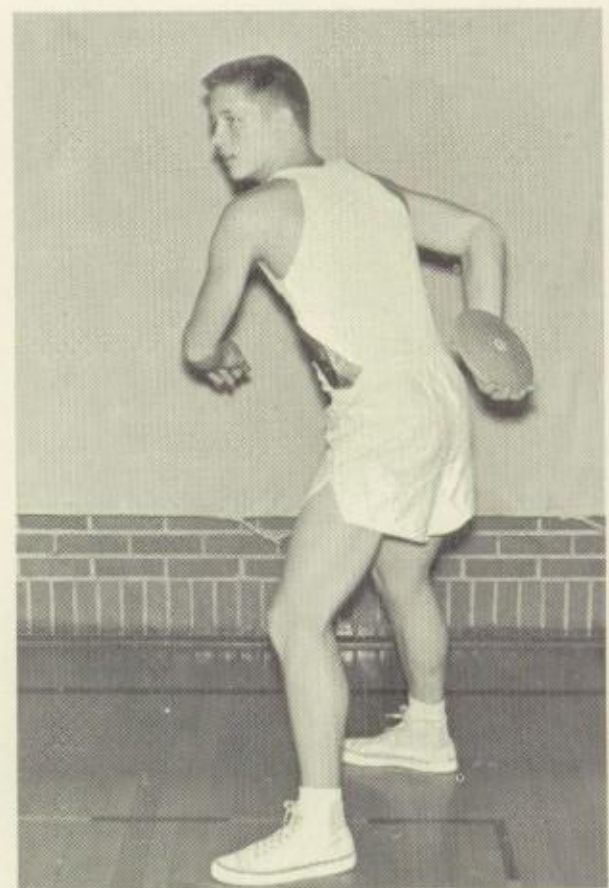

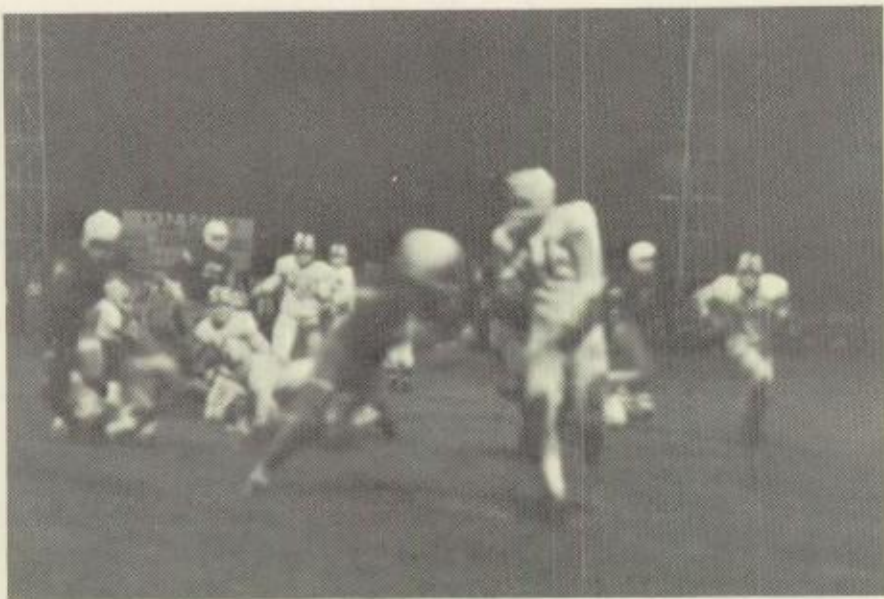

CONTEST PLAY: The players in this year's one act contest play were Marcia Park, Judy Gutknecht, Bettie Johnson and Blaine Erickson.

The trainer's job is to take care of the physical well-being of the players. This includes many things such as taping forward Dick Hagman's ankle as our trainers, Greg Peterson and Tim Halpin are doing in this shot.

Dan LaBelle goes for a large gain against Concord.

Dan LaBelle and his flying discus.

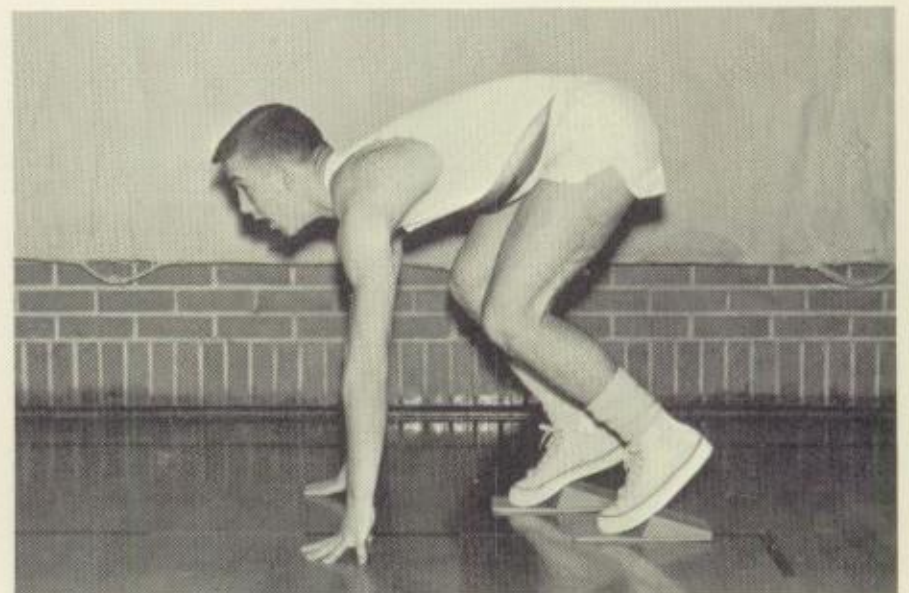

Where's the ball? Going in the basket!!!

Get on your mark, get set, Go Larry, Go!

Ron Johnson sinks another against Taylors Falls.

HOMECOMING

Princess Bev, Princess Kay, Queen LuAnn, Princess Joyce, Princess Nancy. Happiness and excitement fill the air when Homecoming is celebrated at R.C.H.S. The memories of the dance, game, and festivities will remain with us as the years pass.
